

Weekly report

Last week, the main work was teaching material writing. I will finish it in this week and transfer my attention to compression project and vis paper collection.